

The Cooke Seahawk News

Breaking News: Cooke Students Have Spoken

All students at Cooke had the opportunity to vote for United States President and Mayor of Virginia Beach on October 31. The results were Barack Obama won as president and Will Sessoms won for mayor. It will be interesting to see how the Cooke results compare to the national vote.

The Fall Festival Was Fabulous!

By Ava Anderson and Barrett Stakem

The Fall Festival was held on October 10. Activities included a cakewalk, hayride, cornhole toss and moonwalk. The turn out for the festival was great! Allison Stewart really enjoyed the hayride and cakewalk. Wes Laine and Austin Tydings are already planning for next year. Wes and Austin would like to see a pool and boxing chamber at next year's festival. What ever activities are planned, we know it will be fun.

Boxtop Contest Winners Are Announced

By Abigail Copley

Are you one of the students who turned in boxtops to help your class win the contest? We are announcing the results today. The winners include Mrs. Cholish for kindergarten, Mrs. Nelson for first grade, and Ms. Law for second grade, Ms. Cullipher's class for third grade, Mrs. Crigger for fourth grade and Mrs. Letourneau's class for fifth grade. Congratulations to the winners and prizes will be delivered soon.

Have You Noticed Some New Faces At Cooke?

By Delfina Meccico and Abigail Copley

Ms. Cullipher is a new third grade teacher at Cooke. She loves to teach Social Studies. Ms. Cullipher is looking forward to a school dance which she wants to enjoy with the wonderful students at our school. Her favorite way to relax is by walking her dog LuLu Bella.

Do you know our P.E. teacher Ms. Creekmore? She is interested in working with students on the Hershey Track and Field event. Ms. Creekmore's favorite thing about our school is the students. She loves teaching P.E. but likes to relax at home by watching TV.

Students Talk About The Cafeteria

By Merrick Scholl and Priscilla Miller

What do you think about the cafeteria? Students are excited about answering that question since lunch can be an important part of their day. Ava Anderson thinks the food is great. The lunch ladies are very helpful. Olivia Sullivan wishes the snacks did not cost so much money. Many students agree with Sam Taylor who thinks the cafeteria is a nice place to eat but can be noisy.

P.E. Is A Big Hit!

By Dalton Black, Hunter Smith, Nathaniel Hankerson, Kyle Camper and Cole Darnell

One thing almost all students can agree on is that P.E. is fun. Kayla Reuss and Cara Ingraham think P.E. makes you fit and gives you energy. Football is a favorite game of many students such as Jake Davis. Other students, such as Cory Bowen and Barrell Davis, enjoy the challenge of Giant Four Square. Students know that the games taught in P.E. can be something they can play for many years.

News From The SCA

By Dalton Black

The SCA has been busy since the beginning of school. Spirit Day was a chance to dress in the school colors of green and yellow. The SCA is also selling hearts as a way for students to contribute to the United Way charity.

Soon the SCA will be collecting canned food for the needy. Coming in the next issue will be an interview with Brandon Washington who is the president of the SCA.

News From Kindergarten

By Dimitri Hankerson

Taylor Dejesus and Tiffani Escoba love being in Mrs. Cholish's class. Taylor enjoys Math because he is learning so much from it. Tiffani loves Reading because of the beautiful pictures in the books Mrs. Cholish reads to her class.

News From First Grade

By Tre Bullard and Kira Grimm

Dylan Melton, a student in Mrs. Marcum's room, speaks for many of his classmates about the Fall Festival. He loved the moonwalk and hayride. Dylan likes first grade but misses some of the activities he did in kindergarten. He especially likes P.E. this year since he gets to see his friends and have fun.

News From Second Grade

By Rowan Ennis

Matt Crane is having fun in Mrs. Scarborough's class reading many interesting stories. Lauren Reuss loves going to Art class as she loves to paint. Both students enjoyed the events at the Fall Festival.

News From Third Grade

By Olivia Sullivan

Third graders are very excited about school. Students, like Annalise Reckenburger, love learning about Social Studies. Other students like all the third grade subjects. Emily Metzger could not pick a favorite subject. Many students are looking forward to class parties at the Winter Holiday. They heard the parties are really fun!

News From Fourth Grade

By Skylar Wilson, Allison Stewart, Dalton Black and Sam Taylor

Fourth graders have been very busy so far this school year. They are enjoying making new friends and learning new subjects. Emily Mochel likes the new words she is learning in Word Study. Mazzie Hilliard enjoys learning about new places in Social Studies. All fourth graders agree that they love their new teachers.

News From Fifth Grade

By Sam Taylor

Students seem to enjoy fifth grade Math. Brandon Burt is surprised that it is easy and fun. Hunter Reckenberger is happy that he is good in Math. Both students agree that fifth grade is the place to be!

Coming in the next issue—

We interview the SCA President Brandon Washington. What is Banking Day and how can you take part? How does the Here We Grow Again club make our school a better place?

The Cooke Seahawk is a newspaper for students by students.

*The Editorial Staff includes Abigail Copley, Delfina Meccico, Dalton Black, Tre Bullard and Sam Taylor
Sponsored by Mrs. Letourneau*